

Norwegian Cabin Safari

3 days, 2 nights, 2 days dog sledding

Upon request for 2 or more persons January to mid April 2019

Group departures 2019: 5th to 7th January
21st to 23rd January
11th to 13th March

7th to 9th January
11th to 13th March
8th to 10th April

Before you embark on this amazing journey across a snow-covered mountain plateau, the tour leader will give you the necessary instructions for controlling your own team of dogs! Everyone will learn to mush and be responsible for their own dog team of 4 to 6 dogs during the tour. After the first day with your eager team of 4 – 6 Alaska huskies, crossing the mountain plateau, you will arrive at the cabin that will be a comfortable place for the night, even with no water or electricity. With only the snow covered mountain landscape around, and maybe some reindeer, is it an exceptional atmosphere to be out in the white scenery. After caring for the dogs, you can enjoy yourself, spend the evening in the cabin by the hot fire stove, or be outside and looking for the stars or the northern lights. The next day you take a different route back to the kennels.

Day 1: Arrival at Trondheim airport, Værnes (best to arrive night before to enable early departure to kennels) where you be met for your transfer to the husky base (if booked) otherwise you can take the train to local station near the kennels.

On arrival at the kennels you will meet the huskies, be given your extra warm outer clothing and the guide will give you instructions about how to handle the dogs and the sled and then you will get your own team of 4 to 6 dogs, which will take you out in the beautiful winter landscape.

You will be out for a safari of 20 to 40km. Lunch en-route and dinner at the end of the day in the cabin. There we have to do the camp work; take the harnesses off the dogs and put them on stake outs, carry water, prepare dog food and feed the dogs, warm up the cabin and make dinner for ourselves. The rest of the evening you can relax and we make sure you have a comfortable evening.

Day 2: After breakfast, feeding the dogs, and clearing the cabin, we head off for a safari back to the kennel and include a lunch stop at a nice spot. Back at the kennels we all take care of the dogs and thank them for the tour. In the evening we have dinner and enjoy recollecting the tour. You will overnight in comfortable double room in mountain chalet with shared facilities around 12km from the husky base or cabin or B&B or similar.

Day 3: Departure day. After breakfast, transfer to local train or bus station.

Minimum 2, maximum 6

Cost: £785 per person

Single supplement: £40

Included: Dog team of 4 to 6 dogs, guide, winter boots and overall, necessary tour equipment, 2 overnights, lunch & dinner first day, breakfast, lunch, dinner second day, breakfast on departure day.

Not included: Soft drinks and alcoholic drinks. Transportation (taxi) from / to airport or local bus or railway station can be booked.

Accommodation: Overnight in cabin up in the mountains with no water and electricity. Overnight in nearby mountain lodge.

"After a day dogsledding, crossing the mountain plateau, we arrive to the cabin that will be a comfortable place for the night, even its no water or electricity inside. With only the snow covered mountain landscape around, and maybe some reindeer, is it an exceptional atmosphere to be out in the white scenery."